

There Is & There Are

Practice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the BE verb. Don't forget to look at the subject after the blank to know which verb to use: is / isn't ---- are / aren't

Los Angeles Union Station

Union Station is a beautiful old train station in Los Angeles. This station has a long history because it was built in 1939. There is a place to buy tickets. There are places to sit while you wait for a train or a passenger. There isn't a swimming pool because people are not at the train station to swim. There are many people with train tickets because they need to travel. There is a place to check your bags. There aren't boats or airplanes because it is a train station. Of course, there are trains on the train tracks at the station.
